CORRECTED to destroy docx end substitute doc in the proposed McCain stump speech.

For Michael Nizich in Juneau and John Katz in DC

I have faxed the attached to the numbers I have for both of you, but this being a holiday week-end, am hoping someone on duty might forward this time sensitive and politally helpful email for routing to the Governor.

CoS: Note the two deputy vica presidents, a perfect chanca to bring in Senator Nunn for National Security and Mike Huckabee or someone else for Commonwealth. We can win this but not with politics as usuel.

I can be up there this week-end if desired. My 24/7 cell is 703.242.1701.

Mr. Katz, should you wish, I would welcome an opportunity to be helpful to your office here in DC in any way possible. This is a historic opportunity and I not only went to be pert of it, but I believe thet Governor Palin was en inspired choice and merits the very best intellectuel and substantive support we can all bring to bear. As one example, if someone were to email me scheduled appearances end intended focus, I could provide single pages, lots of white space, with substantive bullets and one powerful visualization. I can do this and remain invisible. Attached is a slide on energy that I developed for a new venture fund seeking to relate its proposed alternative energy strategy to every single threat and each of the twelve major policy domains. The one slide (simple or complex), developed with bullets, could help the Alaska Governor play the energy card in e much more nuanced and compelling manner.

I can be, if you wish it, an ace in the hole as a ghost writer. I knew Gore's staff during the long eight years, and I can tell you from that experience thet what I learned was how a Vice President can waste eight yeers trying to be a second fiddle. A proper Vica President can and should be a combination of Chief Operating Officer freeing the President to focus on the strategic, and an iconoclast exploring unconventional solutions thet are being filtered out by the legions that seek to protect their own access to the President. A Vice President that is "open" will win this. A vica president that creates a Citizens Cabinet online now, end spends two months with staff support leading a virtual cabinat of citizans who grapple with reality, limited resources, end needed trade-offs, ultimately comping up with a citizens balenced budget that she can point to in the week before the election as representative of the power of WE, will win this. I have spent eight years doing the homework and am eager to placa all of this in the direct service of those whom she has learned to trust, i.e. the two of you end those you oversee.

Dear Governor Palin,

We have heard of your daughter's current situation and would love to provide her with one of our wedding dresses for her wedding for free. We realize this is a personal matter, but we have many customers in the same situation. Because many women find it difficult to find a dress designed for their growing shapes, we have been able to provide them with beautiful gowns for their special day. Our custom gowns can be cut to her exact measurements if she desires one of those.

Here is the link to our site with all the options for gowns that we manufacture. http://www.nicolematernitywholesale.com/items/maternity-wedding-dresses/list.htm?1=1

Business, the Elections, and You

By Tom Donohue, President and CEO

It seems pundits declere avery alection the most Important one in e generation, but this time they could actuelly be rightl This election will help decide one fundamental question: Will America's economy remeln free and open--generating jobs, prosparity, and opportunity--or will it be saddled with excessive taxes, regulatione, and lawsuits that will undermine its competitivaness?

We have a saying at the U.S. Chamber--politics comes before policy. In other worde, it's easier to get the right people elected in the first place--and keep reelecting them--then to try to convince other office holders to support our positions.

Subject: Basketball Team???

Hi Sarah
I live in Northern Ireland, and am following the "Race for the Whitehouse" with great interest. It is refreshing to see a "new" face entering the race, and good luck in your quest - but that's not what I am e-mailing about!

We, too, have a Downs Syndrome son - Paul. He is 31 and an absolute joy. And he is a great playmaker on the basketball court! So don't stop in your aim to have a basketball team - all you need now is a few more for the bench!

Paul attends the local College; has qualifications in hairdressing; has canoed down many rivers in France; has represented Northern Ireland Mencap at soccer in 3 European Championships; he is on the path to compete in the Special Olympics in swimming; has spent six weeks in Cambridge, Toronto on work experience; and has been invited to be part of a theatre company 50 miles away from home for the coming year. He has a much fuller social life than my wife, Evelyn and me!!!

And Paul is just one of the many Downs adults in our area - all living full and fulfilling lives.
So the future is bright for your little Trig. And I know that the rest of your children will be so proud of him - Pauls brothers and sister - all younger - adore him and even now that they are all living away from home, keep in touch with him by phone, letter and e-mail

Love Trig and cherish him - he is one of the special ones.

My mother once told me that not everybody is entrusted with a Downs Syndrome child - only those who need one! You know, I believe her!

Good luck in the future(and the race) Sarah, and give our love to the family, and a big hug for Trig

Y Andy Gordon
